In the Knead of Pizza

Hammad, Amanda, Oscar & Akshara

It was an unusual start to the school day on Tuesday 28 January for Cedar Class, who are one of the year 4 classes. The day started at 8:10am. This was so that they could avoid the traffic of west London to reach Pizza Express, Kew, in no time. Miss Wadge, a member of the office team, said 'It's wonderful that the children got to go to Pizza Express for the first time at Orchard School.'

On arrival, the managers, Gosia and Aitanna, and chefs, Biagio and Conrand, welcomed the children. The children were soon kitted out in essential outfit for cooking: an apron and a matching chef's hat. After a quick introduction to the origins of Pizza Express and everyone's favourite meal, pizza, the children had the chance to feel different types of dough and learn about some of the key ingredients of the most authentic of all pizzas: a margarita. Children spent around half an hour to create their own pizza using the pre-prepared dough, traditional Italian tomato sauce with basil and finished off with a generous layer of mozzarella cheese. When asked, how the children felt about the experience, Rayyan, a member of Cedar Class, said, 'I felt happy to make pizza' This experience does not stop here. Next week, it will be the turn of Beech class. Read next week's newsletter to find out more...

Hands on learning in action at Pizza Express as part of the company's commitment to working with schools.
