A story by Samica—Oak Class

A lonely little upset girl walked down an abandoned beach, but then so suddenly, Amy came across some bubbles. She picked them up and blew the liquid. Obviously, it started to form bubbles but it did a strange thing. It started to lift her feet up, taking her on a long journey.

She went from bubble to bubble, laughing all the way to SPACE!! As she saw stars shining in the sky, she noticed she was now in the bubble and started going down to the sea.

Keira from Oak class drew a lovely sketch of 'Starry Night by Van Gogh.
