WELLBEING

Welcome to the The Arts Centre, Hounslow!
We are here to let you know about some of our activities that are taking place during our Mental Health and Well-Being Festival that some of your students and their families might be interested in!

Our Festival is running from the 22nd October to the 21st October during half term week and all activities are pay what you decide!

It is a perfect day out for the family and we would love to give some help in spreading the word so we can get as many people to join us as possible for a fun-filled week of activities.

Join Us for our Puppetry Workshops

As well as our live performance of this feel good play, we also will be holding puppetry workshops which are designed around the show where you will be able to make your very own cat puppet!

This is so you can always have your puppet around to help comfort you when you're down and remind you you're never alone! This will be a great workshop led by a professional puppeteer so you won't want to miss out!

Dates for workshops

- WEDNESDAY 27th OCT 10-11
- THURSDAY 28th OCT 10-11
- FRIDAY 29th OCT 10-11

More information will be posted on our website soon with a section available for you to purchase tickets to reserve a space for the workshop!

We will only have 12 spaces available for each workshop so keep your eye peeled on Theartscentre.co.uk website so you can book your space!

THE COME AND GO CAT

One of our main events during this week is a live performance of the play "The Come and Go Cat" presented by Endevens Arts in association with The Arts Centre, Hounslow.

Here's a little insight to what the show is about...

But help comes from the most unexpected place when a talking, may not talk to her, but she's world in three lines again. Join. This when fairy tale is about the parent of language which is a beautiful show to be performed during our Mental Health and Well-Being Festival!

This play follows the story of Twelve year old Gabby Gallagher who has never lived in a big city before. When she has to move in with her Grandma she finds she's quite nervous of how to navigate this new change in her life.

WANT TO KNOW WHAT ELSE YOU CAN SEE IN WEEP?

Not only do we have our workshops and live performance going on but we also have mail painting sessions, activities on during the week, plenty of board games, audio games and letters and a polaroid camera to capture pictures of all of our community enjoying themselves! There is so much going on during this festival and we would love to see as many people as possible!

What is an audio game? For our performance of 'The Come and Go Cat' we will be using a polaroid camera to capture pictures of all of our community enjoying themselves!

This festival is pay what you decide so get backing your tickets from your school space!
